Friday 2nd March 2018

Dear Parents & Carers,

On Tuesday 13th March Barn Croft Primary School will have the honour of receiving a royal visit from Her Royal Highness The Duchess of Cornwall.

As you can imagine we are more than a little excited!

The visit will take place between 1.15pm and 2.15pm.

We are learning about the Commonwealth at the moment and this is the reason for the visit. The Duchess of Cornwall is the patron of the Eden Project who organise the Big Lunch each year. This year, because the Commonwealth Leaders Summit is taking place in England, they are organising the Commonwealth Big Lunch. We will be organising our own school Commonwealth Big Lunch and the Duchess will be coming to see how the children are getting ready for the event and what they have been learning about the Commonwealth.

On Monday 12th March a letter will be sent home to you asking for photograph permissions and informing you about changes to lunches on the day for the children. Please complete these forms and return as soon as possible before Friday 9th March.

We would like to invite you all to greet Her Royal Highness outside the school building in our carpark at 1.00pm. The children will be outside waiting to greet her with staff and children from our local schools. Of course security is of the utmost importance and so I will get a letter out to you all shortly informing you of the details for arrival.

Please send your children to school in full smart school uniform on that day as we want the world to see how amazing & special our community really is!!

There is a lot of preparation to be done and it has been going on for the past couple of weeks but we have been unable to inform anyone until today due to Royal protocol. I will keep you updated with letters from Monday so please look out for them in your child's bag or on the website or on our Facebook page.

Have a wonderful weekend!
