Reading at home with your child

Read daily with your child

Have a set time/space to read together

They read their book to you as well as you reading books to them beyond their reading level.

Discuss the book and story:

What, who, where, when, why, how?

Support sheet will be sent home with question starters.

Praise your children for their efforts

Help them to segment and blend new words.

Mirror back correct pronunciation and check understanding of tricky words.

Enjoy reading together, engage in the story and they will develop a love of reading.

Read, read and over read the same story. Children love repetition and this helps to cement their sight reading, pace and fluency.
